

We are a part of the network of national disability councils operating in all member states of the European Union and associated under the umbrella of the European Disability Forum (EDF). We have been a full member of EDF since 2004.

Being an EDF member means:

- Benefiting from EDF strong network and activities as well as contributing, through our ideas and experiences, to our work and campaigns; Helping us to build on successful campaigns and alliances
- Benefiting from EDF strong network and activities as well as contributing, through our ideas and experiences, to our work and campaigns; Helping us to build on successful campaigns and alliances
- Facilitating new partnerships for projects, conferences and events;
- Gaining expertise, developing new ideas by sharing best practices with other members of the network and benefit from EDF expertise;
- Being the first to receive information about the latest EU developments on disability issues through EDF publications and newsletters, regular mailings and the “Members’ Only” website;
- Disseminating our point of view and information about our organisation through contributions to EDF publications and by inserting our website link and short description into the EDF website;
- Helping EDF to develop new campaign work and projects with our ideas and/or sponsorship
